THIRD SUSPECT IDENTIFIED IN DOMINO'S PIZZA DELIVERY ATTACK

NEW ORLEANS – NOPD detectives have identified a third suspect in the Bourbon Street attack of a Domino's delivery person.

On Wednesday, February 17, 2016, the NOPD received a Crimestoppers tip identifying Tydarrious Thames (DOB: 02-13-1994) of Laurel, Mississippi, as an accomplice in the second degree battery and attempted simple robbery of a Domino's Pizza delivery person. The attack took place in the 500 block of Bourbon Street during the early morning hours of February 14, 2016.

NOPD Detective Christopher LaBorde obtained an arrest warrant for Thames on Thursday, February 18, 2016. Derrick Pruitt (DOB: 12-20-1994) and Rashad Hardy (DOB: 05-11-1995), both of Laurel, Mississippi, were arrested for their involvement. Thames remains at large and a fourth suspect has not been identified.

Attached is a photograph of Thames.
